Vaikunta Ekadasi in temples

Chennai: Despite heavy rains, hundreds of devotees thronged Sri Parthasarathy temple at Triplicane in the city on the occasion of Vaikunta Ekadasi. The devotees also accompanied the procession in which the idol of the presiding deity was taken through the Sargavaasal (gateway to heaven).

Honour for city doctor

Chennai: Dr. Rajan Ravichandran, Director, Madras Institute of Nephrology, Vijaya Health Centre, Chennai, has been nominated for the prestigious fellowship of the Royal College of Physicians (Edinburgh). The FRCP would be conferred on him in July 2008 in the UK. Having 21 years experience in nephrology, Dr Rajan has been conferred the Rotary Club of Madras Coromandel's Vocational Excellence Award.
