

Chennai doctor wins recognition

NT Bureau

Chennai, Jan 29:

Bringing laurels to Chennai, Dr Rajan Ravichandran, director, Madras Institute of Nephrology at Vijaya Hospitals was selected to Fellow of The American College of Physicians (FACP).

The distinction recognises achievements in internal medicine, the specialty of adult medical care. The doctor was selected following the recommendations of peers and the review of FACP's credentials sub committee.

A product of Mumbai G S

Dr Rajan Ravichandran

Medical College, Rajan Ravichandran completed sub specialty training in nephrology in the same institute in 1983.

Later he was appointed as visiting professor at Porur Ramachandra Medical College in 1993. Recently, he was awarded with the Fellowship of Royal College of Physician (FRCP), Edinburgh.

The American College of Physicians is the second largest physician group in the United States.

The doctor has been invited to attend the convocation to be held in Washington DC in May 2008.